Viticulture & Wine Making

Check out the research databases and websites below

Popular multi-Subject databases

The following databases cover a huge range of subjects including articles related to viticulture.

- ProQuest Central
- General OneFile
- MasterFile Complete

Other key databases

AJEV - The American Journal of Enology and Viticulture
Please note: if you are off campus and you need to login to AJEV you must use the generic NMIT username and password combination of:

- nmituser
- Wine1
These are case sensitive.
Please ensure you log out once you have finished your session.

AJGW - Australian Journal of Grape and Wine Research
Online subscription; Citation/abstract Vol. 1 (1995)- present; Full text latest 5 years only.
Please note: if you are off campus and you need to login to AJGW you must use the generic NMIT username and password combination of:

- NELSON181S
- Apj167167apj
These are case sensitive.
Please ensure you log out once you have finished your session.

Decanter News and Opinion
The latest wine news from around the world.

DigitalNZ
Good for accessing NZ research (e.g. AKL University, Lincoln University).

NZ Winegrower
National & regional news, opinions, profiles and more.

Science Direct
Full-text scientific database

Science in Context
Provides both popular and academic references.

South African Journal of Enology & Viticulture
e-journal - Search by issue, title, keyword or author.

VITIS - Viticulture and Enology Abstracts
Abstracts on grape science and technology 1968 to the present.

Wine Business Monthly
(FREE TO REGISTER)

Wines and Vines
Selected articles

New Zealand specific databases

These databases may be useful when searching for articles published in New Zealand or specific to a New Zealand context.

- Australia New Zealand Reference Centre
Full text articles available from thousands of Australian & NZ journals, newspapers etc.

- INNZ Index New Zealand
New Zealand Journals indexed by the National Library of New Zealand.
Recommended websites

Check out these websites for trusted information.

American Phytopathological Society - APS (external link)
A professional scientific organisation which is focused on the study and control of plant diseases.

Australian Society of Viticulture and Oenology - ASVO (external link)
News and events, membership details, publications, conferences, wine shows and more for the ASVO.

LRIS Land Resource Information Systems portal (external link)
Environment and land data from Landcare Research.

Marlborough Research Centre (external link)
Provides scientific research, technological development for the grape and wine industry for New Zealand.

New Zealand Society for Viticulture & Oenology (external link)
Lists significant related websites, reviews of technical papers, contents pages, news, employment and advertisements of equipment for sale.

NZ Winegrowers Website (external link)
A wide range of wine and winery related information; list of wineries in New Zealand, descriptions of wine styles, events, statistics, research and spray information.

Our Environment (external link)
Learn about New Zealand's natural environments and land resources, using maps and data.

Plant and Food Research (external link)
The centre at Marlborough offers information about the wine industry with; quick facts and case studies.

Wine Economics Research Centre databases (external link)
For global statistics and data on wine: regions, markets and grape varieties.

Wine Marlborough (external link)
List of wineries, events, news and tourism information in the Marlborough region.

Worksafe New Zealand (external link)
New Zealand’s workplace health and safety regulator.